ST CHRISTOPHER SCHOOL ARTS FESTIVAL
Monday 19 to Saturday 24 June 2017

Programme

Welcome to the St Christopher School Arts Festival 2017.

The St Chris Arts Festival is a dedicated week of activities, workshops and performances for both the School's students and the wider public to get the creativity flowing!

From manga to gospel music, street art to flower animals, synchronised swimming to designing and making a mechanical art piano, there's something for everyone to get involved with this week.

Students from the Nursery through to Sixth Form are taking part in over forty different events and workshops that mix creativity with science, maths, English, sport, geography, history and French.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Illustration Talk and Workshop with children's book illustrator Marion Deuchars
- Performance Poetry with Ben Mellor, who won the BBC Radio 4 National Poetry Slam in 2009
- Freestyle Football with Jamie Knight, one of the UK's most recognised names in the sport
- Chinese Dragon Dance and Circus Skills in the Junior School
- Manga with artist Sonia Leong
- Street Dance with Urban Strides, who have supported Diversity
- The Chemistry of Art where students make their own pigments and paint a Pop Art Periodic Table on the side of the Science block
- Mechanical Art Piano Sculpture created by dissecting an old upright piano
- Maths meets art when students scale and mark up a large chalk design on the lawn of the Junior School
- Typography Lecture by graphic designer Jonathan Miller
- Graphic Novels with expert Paul Register
- Street Art to help turn the School's skate Halfpipe into a climbing wall

On Friday 23 June the whole School will come together to film a video celebrating creativity at St Chris followed by a summer festival with tents, performances and ice cream on the School Field.

The St Chris Arts Festival includes a number of events that are open to the public – we look forward to seeing you there.
